Hallsted Suggests By-Laws Changes

Important changes in Orinda Association by-laws were recommended Monday night by the Civic Affairs Committee, on suggestion by Clinton Hallsted, outgoing chairman.

They are:

- 1.—THE TIME of election be changed from December to early November, to preclude any interference with Christmas holiday activities.

- 2.—There should be a general meeting held before election, which would be the "kickoff" for the annual membership drive. This might be called "Candidates Night" so that people could meet the candidates.

- 3.—THE CHAIRMAN of the Civic Affairs Committee to be made a full voting member of the Board of Directors.

- 4.—The number of board members be increased to conform with the number of voting precincts.

These recommendations now go to the Board of Directors for action.

In other business, the Civic Affairs delegates, meeting at Orinda School:

- 1.—HEARD ASSOCIATION Vice-President Everett Howe explain the reasons for the old board's voting in January not to oppose PG&E's present program to obtain additional right-of-way width for a 220,000-volt power line through the Orinda Country Club area.

- 2.—DECIDED TO ASK a representative of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association to appear at the March 16 meeting and explain the reasons why the Taxpayers Association directors believe the $1,330,000 countywide bond issue election for construction of a county office building in Richmond is necessary.

Hallsted reported that Frank Cayting had informed him that the Taxpayers Association directors feel the bond proposal is okay. Orinda will have six polling places, Hallsted said.

Rotary To Elect New Officers

The Orinda Rotary Club will elect new officers for the coming year at their meeting at the Orinda Wilcox Wednesday noon, it was announced this week.

The present officers will remain in office until July 1, when the new group will take over. Nominations have not yet been released.

Ted Cotter, a guide from Nairobi, Africa, kept the Rotarians on the edge of their chairs at last Wednesday's meeting when he showed a film, "African White Hunter."

Realtors To Hear About Planning

Boone Robinson, member of the Citizens Committee on Planning, will be the speaker at the Contra Costa Realtors Mart breakfast on Monday at 8 a.m. at El Nido restaurant.

Robinson's subject will be "Master Planning in Contra Costa County," according to Tom Watson, chairman.

Wilbur E. Warner, vice-president of Western Mortgage Corporation, was speaker at the Contra Costa Realtors Mart on Monday morning at El Nido in Lafayette. Warner gave a talk on real estate financing.

Lion Hunt Futile When Shots Miss

A full grown mountain lion was sighted on the property of Dr. Robert Cutter in Bear Creek Canyon last Saturday by his neighbor, James Wood, who fired two shots at it.

According to reports he missed the animal and the sheriff's office called in John Masayko of Martinez, and Aubrey Epps of Concord, who tracked the lion with dogs for two hours.

William Sargent, an Oakland insurance broker, who lives farther up the canyon, last saw the animal at 5 p.m. as it loped over a hill and disappeared into underbrush.

Frank R. Hart New Chairman Of Civic Affairs

Frank R. Hart of 100 Overhill Road was elected 1953 chairman of the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee Monday night. Hart, who is president of the Moraga Highlands Association, was suggested for the post by Clinton Hallsted, outgoing chairman, and the delegates unanimously selected him.

D. Ramsay Underwood was appointed by Hart to be vice-chairman for another year. The new chairman appointed Anne Sanford as recording secretary.

Hart said he would select a corresponding secretary later. Until this year, Civic Affairs has had only one secretary each year; the position was filled during the past year by Evelyn McKinley.

After expressing thanks for being elected by Hart to be vice-chairman, Underwood told the delegates at Orinda School:

"MANY NEW FAMILIES are coming into Orinda, and I feel that many of them don't know about the Orinda Association. I suggest as an aim for 1953 that we get these people acquainted with the association and what it does.

"We have a new Board of Directors, I think that by close cooperation of the Civic Affairs Committee and the board, the Orinda Association can probably do an even better job for the community than it has."

He thanked Hallsted, Underwood and Mrs. McKinley for a "job well done." Mrs. McKinley was not present at the meeting.

HART AND HIS WIFE, Reva, have lived in Orinda for about four years. He organized the Moraga Highlands Association over two years ago, and has represented it on the Civic Affairs Committee ever since.

A lubrication consultant with Standard Oil Company in San Francisco, Hart enjoys gardening, hunting and fishing as hobbies. Before moving to Orinda, Mr. and Mrs. Hart lived in San Francisco.

Hart was born in San Francisco and attended grammar school there. He is a graduate of the University of Illinois, where he received a B. A. degree in Agricultural Engineering.

UNDERWOOD represents the Orinda Chamber of Commerce on the Civic Affairs Committee. He was chosen Orinda's Man of the Year for 1952 in the annual contest sponsored by The Orinda Sun.

Mrs. Sanford is delegate from the Orinda Estates Owners Association.

County Officials To Meet Chamber

The Orinda Chamber of Commerce yesterday announced that Jack Cummings, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, Sheriff James Long, and Vic Sauer, county road commission, have accepted the chamber's invitation and will be present at a meeting on March 19, to be held at the Casa Orinda at noon.

A committee has been organized by the chamber to prepare questions which the officials will be expected to answer. Ramsay Underwood is chairman, assisted by Ned DeLaveaga, Walter Friberg and Ernie Poll.

Parking problems and future realignment of the San Pablo Dam Road as it affects Orinda Village will be the primary questions to be discussed. The chamber will request loading zones for trucks the full length of the alley between the Vashell and Wood buildings, and the posting of a speed limit there.

The Orinda Fire Department's request that the county post one or two-hour parking limit signs on both sides of Avenida Del Orinda and have diagonal parking lines painted will be considered.

Ramsay Underwood was appointed chairman of a committee to nominate officers for the new year. Assisting him will be Walter Friberg and Bill Worden. The election will take place some time in the next two months.

Zoning, Building Problems Weighed By Civic Affairs

Discussion of an apartment building being erected along the west side of Northwood Drive, back of the Union Oil Station and adjacent to Black's Market, led to a general review of zoning problems at Monday night's meeting of the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee at Orinda School.

Upshot was that Boone Robinson, as a representative of the Independent Citizens Committee on Planning, was scheduled to appear at next Monday night's meeting of the Orinda Association board. A Bailey Committee speaker before the board was suggested by Director Everett Howe, who said the board might arrange a public meeting later on the general subject of zoning and master planning.

Howe was present to explain the January decision of the old board not to oppose PG&E right of way efforts through the Orinda Country Club area.

E. J. FOWLER JR., president of Orindans, Inc., brought up the matter of the apartment house. "A lot of people in Moraga Estates were incensed over the erection of the building," he said. "A petition was signed recently by some 80 persons, asking that the Orinda Association take action against it."

However, Fowler continued, checking by the improvement group's building committee, of which he is a member, revealed the following facts:

1. Lot 41, the lot in question, has been exempted from zoning restrictions in the area. (The building came to the building committee last November, expressing a desire to cooperate.)

2. — The lot was zoned for Retail Business, with the restriction that only the portion within 100 feet from Moraga Highway could be used for that purpose.

3. — An apartment house is not considered a commercial establishment, but a multi-family dwelling.

CIVIC AFFAIRS Vice-Chairman D. Ramsay Underwood read a summary of the Zoning Ordinance, which states that multiple family dwellings are allowed in a Retail Business zone, without land-use permits.

Fowler said the apartment house is a one-story duplex. "From the architect's sketch, it appears to be a very attractive structure," he commented. He added that the Orindans, Inc., building committee feels the building should be accepted but that many of the neighbors don't. "The rapid growth of Contra Costa County," Somerton said, "has antiquated the present zoning ordinance and presented certain loopholes which must be eliminated while an overall Master Plan for the development of the county is being prepared."

During the interim, industry and agriculture, which comprise the bulk of the county's assessed valuation, must be protected. They should have, for instance, the assurance that a subdivision will not be located next to a factory or in the heart of a farm area against the wishes of the people in the affected area.

"IT IS POSSIBLE now to put a subdivision anywhere through the obtaining of a land use permit, even though the permit completely changes the character of the area without proper rezoning consideration."

"When a subdivision comes into an area zoned for agriculture, for example, the area should be rezoned so that proper consideration can be given to drainage, sewage, roads, schools and other facilities."

Prior to this announcement, some of the recent Cardinet-Bailey verbal fireworks included:

CARDINET COMMITTEE: "The latest attack upon the Official County Planning Committee of 26 by the Independent Citizens Committee once more demonstrates that selfish persons dominating the independents do not want the citizens at large to know the facts of the over-all planning proposals that have been submitted to the Board of Supervisors."

BAILEY COMMITTEE: "It has come to our attention that untrue and dangerous propaganda is being circulated in an attempt to make the general public believe the fate of the county depends on immediately setting the size of potential home sites at a certain fixed standard size, and that such action is being unnecessarily delayed. Nothing could be farther from the truth so far as the Independent Citizens Committee on Planning is concerned. Our committee from the outset has never advocated one single lot size for the whole county, or made that the sole basis for our arguments in favor of careful and orderly development of the county, according to a long-range Master Plan."

Fred H. Hunter, who has confessed to the robbery of Estelle and Gladys Reeve on January 31, was arraigned before the Superior Court Monday.

He will enter his plea before the same court Tuesday, it was announced. Sheriff's Inspector Norman A. Wilson said that a guilty plea would probably be entered, and that he will be sentenced at that time.

Hunter is accused of the armed robbery of the Reeve sisters of 225 Canon Drive.

According to Wilson, Hunter was lurking in the Reeve garage when the sisters came out of the house, pointed a gun at them and made off in an old sedan with $47.

The victims' description of the sedan led to his arrest scarcely 12 hours after the robbery.

Better do all your shopping now, have the kids learn an extra lesson, and deposit your hordes in the bank, because activities will be restricted Monday.

Sunday is Washington's birthday, but most business firms will observe Monday as the legal holiday. The American Trust Company will be closed, as will all Orinda Schools and Acalanes High School.

HEARTS OF THESE THREE Orinda eight-year-olds were really big with desire to help in the current Heart Fund Drive — they stuffed over 2500 envelopes with Heart Fund information for

Cardinet-Bailey Still Scrapping; Seek Law Change

Hot words continued to fly this week between the Cardinet and Bailey committees in the protracted lot-size dispute.

Following the latest exchange of charges and counter-charges, the Independent Citizens Committee on Planning, headed by William A. Bailey Jr., announced yesterday that it will propose immediate strengthening of the County Zoning Ordinance as it applies to industrial and agricultural areas.

Doyle said this week that Assembly Bill 1841, introduced by Assemblyman Earl W. Stanley of Balboa and co-authored by Doyle and several other assemblymen, has an essential difference from the controversial "urban unincorporated" proposal of two years ago.

"THIS BILL is not compulsory, the other one was," Doyle said. The 1951 version proposed that heavily populated rural areas pay extra county taxes for certain essential county services. That measure, backed by the League of California Cities and opposed by the California Supervisors' Association, was referred to Interim Committee on Municipal and County Government, headed by Stanley.

"The League of California Cities and the California Supervisors' Association got together and drew up this draft," Doyle said. "Recently, I talked with Richard Graves of Lafayette, executive secretary of the League of California Cities, and he told me he'd be willing to go along with the new bill except for two minor changes."

AFTER THE Legislature reconvenes Tuesday, A. B. 1841 will be studied by the Assembly Committee on Municipal and County Government, of which Stanley is chairman and of which Doyle is a member. Amendments will be offered, and Doyle said he expects to know about the amendments by the time he appears at the Lafayette Improvement Association's public meeting of March 11 to discuss the measure.

That meeting, to start at 8 p. m., will be at Lafayette Town Hall.

Doyle, a resident of Lafayette, said he is in favor of the present bill. "It would," he said, "set up a County Service Area Law enabling unincorporated areas to establish extended services which the counties are authorized by law to perform and which counties are not now performing on a countywide basis. These extended services would be paid for by the people in a special service area, through extra county taxes."

"However, the entire setup would be voluntary, and it would be up to a local unincorporated area or community to decide whether to form such a special service area, not to form it, or incorporate as a city."

A. B. 1841, like the "urban unincorporated" bill of two years ago, is of particular concern to such rapidly-growing areas as Lafayette, Orinda and the unincorporated areas around Walnut Creek, the 10th District assemblyman pointed out.

But the voluntary aspect of the present proposal removes the sting of the 1951 version, Doyle said.

The assemblyman listed extended police protection, fire protection and local recreation and park facilities as among the special services which could be obtained.

"THE AMOUNT of taxation would depend on the money involved — in other words, the type and number of services desired by an area," Doyle explained.

"I feel that A. B. 1841 is a compromise from the bill presented two years ago, and that it is the type of legislation that those needing and wanting these services can obtain, without being forced into it," he said.

"Adequate local fire protection is now had by the people here. But there are other services by which the local unincorporated communities could benefit. For instance, if extended police protection were arranged for, a community like Lafayette would have a couple of sheriff's deputies permanently assigned to the community. And under a recreation service setup, it would be a 'dead cinch' to get the

Doyle Says New 'Urban Unincorporated' Bill Voluntary, Would Aid Local Areas

The new "urban unincorporated" bill in the legislative hopper at Sacramento is the result of interim committee study and is a compromise between the League of California Cities and the California Supervisors' Association, according to Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle.

Doyle said this week that Assembly Bill 1841, introduced by Assemblyman Earl W. Stanley of Balboa and co-authored by Doyle and several other assemblymen, has an essential difference from the controversial "urban unincorporated" proposal of two years ago.

"THIS BILL is not compulsory, the other one was," Doyle said. The 1951 version proposed that heavily populated rural areas pay extra county taxes for certain essential county services. That measure, backed by the League of California Cities and opposed by the California Supervisors' Association, was referred to Interim Committee on Municipal and County Government, headed by Stanley.

"Recently, I talked with Richard Graves of Lafayette, executive secretary of the League of California Cities, and he told me he'd be willing to go along with the new bill except for two minor changes."

AFTER THE Legislature reconvenes Tuesday, A. B. 1841 will be studied by the Assembly Committee on Municipal and County Government, of which Stanley is chairman and of which Doyle is a member. Amendments will be offered, and Doyle said he expects to know about the amendments by the time he appears at the Lafayette Improvement Association's public meeting of March 11 to discuss the measure.

That meeting, to start at 8 p. m., will be at Lafayette Town Hall.

Doyle, a resident of Lafayette, said he is in favor of the present bill. "It would," he said, "set up a County Service Area Law enabling unincorporated areas to establish extended services which the counties are authorized by law to perform and which counties are not now performing on a countywide basis. These extended services would be paid for by the people in a special service area, through extra county taxes."

"However, the entire setup would be voluntary, and it would be up to a local unincorporated area or community to decide whether to form such a special service area, not to form it, or incorporate as a city."

A. B. 1841, like the "urban unincorporated" bill of two years ago, is of particular concern to such rapidly-growing areas as Lafayette, Orinda and the unincorporated areas around Walnut Creek, the 10th District assemblyman pointed out.

But the voluntary aspect of the present proposal removes the sting of the 1951 version, Doyle said.

The assemblyman listed extended police protection, fire protection and local recreation and park facilities as among the special services which could be obtained.

"THE AMOUNT of taxation would depend on the money involved — in other words, the type and number of services desired by an area," Doyle explained.

"I feel that A. B. 1841 is a compromise from the bill presented two years ago, and that it is the type of legislation that those needing and wanting these services can obtain, without being forced into it," he said.

"Adequate local fire protection is now had by the people here. But there are other services by which the local unincorporated communities could benefit. For instance, if extended police protection were arranged for, a community like Lafayette would have a couple of sheriff's deputies permanently assigned to the community. And under a recreation service setup, it would be a 'dead cinch' to get the Lafayette Community Center completed in two years instead of, say, eight years.

"THIS," the legislator added, "is the only way people of this area are going to get these needed services without having to accept charity, donations or rummage sales to pay for them. After talking to other legislators interested in this problem, I'm convinced that unless we do something about it now, we may be forced into it later at a much higher price than we care to pay."

Doyle said he would offer an amendment to exclude agricultural lands from community service areas. "I don't think it would be fair to blanket agricultural lands in such areas if they do not benefit from the arrangement," he commented.

Commuters Say Progress Made With Greyhound

A meeting with President F. W. Ackerman of Pacific Greyhound Lines was held by the Contra Costa Commuters Association yesterday to improve pickup points in San Francisco.

The present pick-up point is at Second and Folsom Streets, and the association is planning to arrange one in the vicinity of Second and Mission.

Plans were made at the association meeting last week to resume a membership drive for the Contra Costa Commuters Association, which is launching another drive to obtain subscriptions for The Orinda Sun.

In announcing the drive, Mrs. Marvin Bonds, club president, called attention to the fact that similar campaigns in the past have resulted in funds for school equipment.

Through the subscription drive which ended last June, $261.75 was realized. The funds were earmarked for playground equipment.

Two years ago a still-film projector was purchased from proceeds of a subscription drive.

"We appreciate the cooperation of the Mothers Club, and are happy to help serve the community," commented Herman Silverman, SUN editor and publisher.

Silverman added that, besides getting net proceeds from the subscription drives, the Orinda Mothers Club receives payment for all "personal" news items turned in by the club publicity chairman.

Sun Is Shining, Blossoms Out, Spring, by Jing

The weatherman looked sourly about at all the Orindans enjoying the spring weather, sneezed glumly into his handkerchief because he has a combination of the flu and hay-fever, adjusted his morning earmuffs and gave out with the following weather.

For the period of Thursday last week through yesterday morning the high was a pleasant 70 degrees last Friday. The low was a teeth-chattering 27 degrees Sunday morning.

The weatherman, who was feeling very grim, pointed out that his seasonal total for rainfall is 21.86 inches, compared to 33.60 at this time last year. He added that he did not know whether or not it would rain soon, as he had missed the report due to his earmuffs.

Start Overpass Late Summer Or Early Fall

With engineering drawings now complete, including plans for the south cloverleaf approach to go through the present location of Bradley's Market, actual construction of the Orinda Interchange portion of the projected Freeway will start in late summer or early fall, Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle disclosed this week.

Doyle said that bids would be called for by the state before June and that bids will be let around June. The Crossroads job, he added, will probably take a year and a half to complete, and the cost is now estimated at not over $1,000,000.

The 10th District assemblyman said he was given this information during conferences about two weeks ago in Sacramento and San Francisco with state highway officials, in which the routing of the south cloverleaf through the Bradley's Market location was discussed.

According to Doyle, an Orinda citizens' group had sought a change in the announced plans of the state for the route through Bradley's Market. He reported that Walter E. Friberg, for the Orinda Chamber of Commerce, of which Friberg is president, and R. E. Wadsworth, representing several property owners, had wanted the cloverleaf to miss Bradley's Market and that they had appeared before State Division of Highways officials in San Francisco.

"On their behalf, I then went to the Division of Highways in Sacramento, to ask if a change in the routing could be made," Doyle said. "With me were G. T. McCoy, state highway engineer and chief of the division, and Albert E. Simmons, assistant district engineer, for District IV. Then I went to the Highways Division office in San Francisco on the matter."

"IN THESE CONFERENCES I was informed that the change is not feasible, for two reasons:

1. — It would change the route of the highway.
2. — The cost would be excessive.

In order for the approach to miss Bradley's, it would be necessary to move PG&E electrical 'high-lines.' The state highway officials pointed out that this change would cost an estimated $200,000, plus the time involved.

Under the present plans, the cost of the south cloverleaf job will be about $70,000, as part of the overall $1,000,000 cost.

"I FEEL THAT the Highways Division has gone into the problem thoroughly from an engineering standpoint. The sooner we get the overpass, the better. The change that was sought would cost more money and would perhaps delay the whole project. The present plans will save some $130,000 and will assure quicker completion of the Orinda Interchange."

The creek near Bradley's will be concreted-over, the assemblyman said.

Doyle revealed that construction of the Lafayette By-Pass and Walnut Creek By-Pass portions of the Freeway is not scheduled until 1958.

"I WAS TOLD that with the present income of highway users' money, under the appropriations as set up by the Collier-Burns Act, we could not expect either of these projects to start until 1958. Both are scheduled for the 1958-59 fiscal year. Start of work on one may precede start of work on the other by several months."

State highway engineers have stated that the Lafayette By-Pass will be started before the Walnut Creek By-Pass.

Doyle said there is a possibility of advancing this schedule by one or two years if additional revenues are obtainable as the result of action by the State Legislature this session.

"I'm pushing for a reasonable increase in highway users' taxes, to handle road problems of this county and state," he said. "There's a bill in the hopper for a one-and-a-half-cent increase in the gasoline tax; I feel that this will be compromised to a one-cent increase."

"I believe that the only real relief we can get for our highway problems, in connection with the future growth of this area, is through some type of rapid transportation. Therefore I'm in favor of the Bay Area Rapid Transit Commission, representing nine Bay Area counties, which is going to make an extensive study of area transportation problems."

Benes Will Start Talks Tomorrow

Contrary to an erroneous report that he was to have started the first of four lectures on the Soviet Menace last week, Bohus Benes, internationally-known statesman and nephew of Edward Benes, former Czech president ousted by the communists, will give the first of a series of four lectures on "The Truth About the Soviet Menace," tomorrow night at 8 in the Acalanes library.

David Nelson Getting Well After Mishap

David Nelson, 10-year-old son of the Charles Nelsons on Orchard Court, is recovering from injuries sustained when a shell exploded in his hand. He was inspecting an unusual metal tube he'd brought home from a hiking trip when the accident occurred. Fingers on his left hand were badly mutilated and a fragment lodged in his eye requiring surgery and several days at Peralta Hospital.

Please Turn in News Stories By Monday

This isn't a sob-story, although the news editor often sobs when he discusses the subject. It concerns deadlines for news stories from correspondents and publicity chairmen.

The SUN is eager to improve its coverage. One of the main ways to do that is to have copy set in type early in the week. ("Yes, boss, I heard you," chirps the news editor.)

So this is an urgent plea to all correspondents and publicity chairmen: Whenever possible, please let us have news copy and information for the current week's issue no later than Monday. In that way, you'll have greater assurance of your story being published, and you'll be helping us considerably in our mechanical problems.

Friday or Saturday would be even better.

Stories should be typed, if possible — and double-spaced and on only one side of each sheet of paper.

Whist Party

A whist party will be held by the Contra Costa Horsemen's Association at 8 p.m. today in Don Fernando's Adobe, 3119 Grant Street, Concord. Bill Hardy, who is in charge, said the admission will be 49 cents.

Do You Know Your "Facts of Heart?"

Are you up on your "Heart Facts and Fallacies?"

That question is offered this week by Dr. George Hurd, Walnut Creek chairman of the 1953 Contra Costa County Heart Fund Drive.

Included in his quiz are these:

1. Do most people who have heart disease die suddenly? 2. Do more people die of heart disease than from any other cause? 3. If a baby is born with a defective heart can anything be done to remedy the defect? 4. Is high blood pressure common below the age of 50?

THE ANSWER to the first one is "no," the rest are all "yes."

Continuing, Dr. Hurd said the fight against the Nation's No. 1 killer is being led by medical research.

"Today," he said, "hearts are being saved because heart research is making vital, new discoveries. People are beginning to know these five hopeful facts:"

1. Some forms of heart disease can be prevented, a few can be cured.
2. All heart cases can be cared for best if diagnosed early.
3. Almost every heart condition can be helped by proper treatment.
4. Most heart patients can keep on working, very often at the same job.
5. Your symptoms may or may not mean heart disease. Don't guess — don't worry. See your doctor and be sure.

With a campaign quota of $12,000 for eastern Contra Costa County, Dr. Hurd said 70 percent of all funds raised in the county will stay here.

CONTRIBUTIONS may be made to "HEART," care of the local post office; or placed in the red plastic hearts which have been distributed.

Colonel Francis J. Clune is chairman of the county drive. Besides Dr. Hurd, local chairmen are John L. Stoffel, Orinda; Mel Nielsen, Lafayette; Hal W. Forsyth, Concord; Donald Kientz, Pleasant Hill, and Mrs. Frank Byington, Danville-Alamo.

Christian Science Subject—'Mind'

A Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Mind" will be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, with the Golden Text taken from Psalms:

"Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite" (147:5).

The Bible citations in the verses from I Kings:

"In Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, Ask what I shall give thee. And Solomon said . . . Give therefore thy servant an understanding that I may discern between good and bad" (3:5, 6, 9).

Correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will include the following:

"A knowledge of the Science of being develops the latent abilities and possibilities of man. . . . It raises the thinker into his native air of insight and perspicacity" (p. 128).

Post Offices Aid Heart Fund Drive

The Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek Post Offices are cooperating with the American Heart Association and its affiliates throughout the country by accepting contributions to the current 1953 Heart Fund campaign addressed to "HEART, care of the local post office."

Contributions received in post offices all over the country for the $10,000,000 drive will be channeled by local postmasters to a central accounting office in each state, which will then remit them to authorized representatives of the American Heart Association or its affiliates.

This is the third successive year that the Post Office Department has cooperated in this way with the Heart Fund, which makes possible the research, education and community service programs of the Heart Associations.

'Lite-a-Bumper' Campaign Moves To Walnut Creek

The Mt. Diablo Area Junior Chamber of Commerce will move into the Broadway Shopping Center in Walnut Creek this weekend with its "Lite-a-Bumper" campaign.

Following a successful weekend at Gregory Gardens, where over 100 automobiles had the Scotch-Lite applied to their bumpers, the Junior Chamber will set up a booth between the Lucky Market and Faust's Restaurant.

Members will sell the safety tape and assist purchasers with its installation tonight from 6 to 9 p.m. and tomorrow from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m.

The sale of reflector strips for the rear bumper of automobiles is part of a national campaign by the Junior Chamber groups to prevent rear end collisions and cut down auto accidents. Reports have been very favorable in areas where the "Scotch-Lite" material has been used, according to the group.

The Mt. Diablo Area Junior Chamber will sponsor a lite-a-bike campaign following the present effort. The same material in small strips will be applied to children's bikes at no cost, as a part of the safety campaign.

Ex-Mrs. White Sees County Jail

The former Mrs. C. Wadsworth White took a "tour" of the county jail in Martinez Wednesday and yesterday, according to Les Bowers, superintendent of the sheriff's office bureau of identification.
It took White's former wife two days to see the jail because she was being held there by order of Judge Donovan of the Superior Court.
Reason for the detention, according to county officials, was violation of a court order asking her to return physical custody of two White children, Cynthia, 9, and Lee, 6, to White. When she refused to do so, and vanished, she was held in contempt of court, according to Bowers.
The former Mrs. White is now Mrs. Keith Reese of Orinda.

Lions Tool Drive Rolling Along

Real gardening weather has come to Orinda, and most people have wandered out to the garage at one time, or another to look at the remains of their garden tools. Some of the people have taken the tools they cannot use and placed them at Village Hardware, 61 Orinda Highway. Not because they are worn out, you understand, but because "Operation Philippines," current project of the Orinda Lions Club is under way.

Handlings Simon of Village Hardware will gladly receive tools, even though you might think they are not usable. If they're beyond use they'll be converted to scrap, and the proceeds will be used to purchase new equipment. Cash contributions are also welcome, and will be used to buy needed tools, according to Orinda Lions President Walter E. Friberg. Contributions may be sent to Jack Cooper, Orinda Lions secretary, 40 El Toyonal. Make your check payable to "Operation Philippines."

The Orinda club is one of many Lions Clubs throughout California and Nevada that are cooperating in the Lions District IV "Operation Philippines." A CARE ship will sail around March 15 for the Philippines with the material collected in the two-state drive.

Tools and other items needed include shovels, rakes, hoes, spades, pitchforks, hand power tools, kerosene and Coleman lamps, rat traps, kitchen utensils, tractors, grain planters, mulchboard or disc plows, grain grinders and millers, power drive grinders, chains, cables, second-hand electric wires, blacksmith forging tools, overalls, raincoats, shoes, women's and children's cotton clothing, chisels, equipment for field drainage, pruning saws, orchard planting literature, books and magazines on farming.

The material will be distributed by Philippine Lions to help rehabilitate Huks—former communists—and set them up with land and a farm of their own. According to the Lions, it is a real measure of fighting communism in which every American can take an active part.

Home Department to Discuss Wardrobe

The Orinda Home Department will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ben Courant, 224 La Espiral at 10 a.m. Mrs. Mary R. Williams, home advisor, will speak on the basic wardrobe planning.
The meeting will be under the direction of chairman Mrs. Lois Killingsworth. New members are invited.

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

COMES A TIME IN THE LIFE of every woman when all of a sudden — zowie — she reaches THAT birthday. Of course, Jack Benny has the perfect answer — he will remain 39 forever and so will a vast number of other people, but in the case of an anonymous lady who attained the millennium last week, a group of friends celebrated in the following fashion.

The guests all turned up in black — the ladies with veils covering their faces — the house was dimly lit and decorated with candles holding wreaths made of purple evergreens with those greenish black patent leather leaves which are calculated to frighten the daylight out of you. The bier was biery, with what with candles, gardenias, etcetera, and finally the guest of honor arrived to celebrate her 40th birthday.

Seeing no one in the dim glim, she announced "Happy Birthday to me." The guests solemnly appeared and ushered her into the funeral looking house, and when it occurred to her what was going on, she howled with glee, and a good time was had by all, particularly after the dispensing of appropriate gifts, such as a cane and slippers, hair dye (although that week, a group of friends celebrated in the following fashion), the book "Forty-Odd" and some choice poems from the fertile minds of the celebrants.

AND NOW ANOTHER UNUSUAL PARTY, and the guests all agree that it was colossal. A no-host stag at the Stephen Jensens for the soon-to-be married Dwight Chapman, and it came as quite some surprise to Mr. Chapman, who arrived at the Jensen home supposedly to pick up Dr. Jensen for a small casual dinner nearby, and there were his many friends from here and town.

The famous Dr. George Selleck, member of the California Wine and Food Society and a judge of wines at the State Fair, arrived with snails in his pockets, and trailing marrow served in bottle, Quiche Lorraine, clear turtle soup, fillet of sole au vin blanc, sirloin of beef au moderne, peas and potatoes, deluxe, crepes suzettes and a Methusala of champagne! Dr. Selleck had assembled and prepared all these Gourmet morsels, and he officiated with dignity and a chef's hat.

There were striking men for everyone, embellished with a cartoon of Kid Chapman K.O'd by Dan Cupid, and a silver cigarette box engraved with the names of all the guests was presented to the astounded guest of honor.

And now getting back to this Methusala of champagne situation. On the off chance that you are as innocent as we in such matters, that is the name for an eight-quart bottle, and the sommelier (wine pourer — James Sharp) had quite something to negotiate during the cork-popping and pouring process.

HAWAIIAN SHENANIGANS at the George Hauerkens for Mrs. Hauerkens's turn, Jay Duthie, who is moving to Honolulu.

The guests turned up looking as Hawaiian as possible, and the hostess turned up with a shrimp curry which was as good as possible (meaning absolutely perfect), and everyone performed, with hulas delightfully mixed in with a little Dixieland jazz, which is some combination when you give it a little thought.

Hosts and hostesses for the Hill and Dale party last Friday night at Orinda Country Club were Messrs. and Mesdames Theodore Lassagne, Stanley Bell, F. E. Blaney, Paul Diggle, Channing Kilburn, Oliver Meek, Thomas Montague, Carl Olsen, H. E. Peck, Lloyd Rasmussen, Marshall Shapiro, Clay Sorrick, Carl Vendi, David Wallace, Kirk Miles and Seaver Ballard. The Miles' and Ballards co-hosted one group.

Reservations for the Valentine's dance at Orinda Country Club the next night were made by Mrs. Grace Slingerland, Messrs and Mesdames Ralph Hart, Ralph Locke, James Stone, Edward McCormick, Neil Taylor, King Wilkin, Dan Peacock, George Lauer, Thomas Hayes, Howard Brown, Alexander Hackin, Herbert Lueck and James Keresy, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson and Dr. and Mrs. George Eliasson. Also, Mr. and Mrs. John Athanson and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ong formed a group of their own at the affair, as did the James Hopkins and Alton Stacks, and the Aubrey Sweets and Glen Stanleys.

INCIDENTALLY, THE DANCING classes at the club on alternate Thursday nights have been a roaring success. Dinner first, then instruction or Thomas Mack puts the victims through their paces and they always come back for more, so it must be fun.

Fancy the fascination of the Charles Camps when they discovered that their new son-in-law, Louis Miller, was born just seven miles from Milford, Conn., where Nancy's great-grandfather the Rev. Charles Witley Camp, preached in the Congregational Church for 35 years.

Mrs. George Dunham and Mrs. Robert O'Grady from Rochester are here visiting cousins the Frank Dumas. They are being shown the sights, which included a trip to the Dutra's cabin on the San Joaquin River where they had a true Western style barbecue and a jaunt on their Hunter Cruiser.

The Jack Bottomleys and Henry Gentrys are home from a trip to Palm Springs.

Parties for the departing Dan Sheldons are being given by the Kenneth Detlings, Clay Sorricks, Ritchie Smiths and Mrs. Ritchie Ward and Mrs. Thomas Telfer.

The Lyle Yorks are skiing at Sugar Bowl and the Dick Weeks are visiting the Chauncey Ponds and attended the Hill and Dale party.

PRETTY SPRING PARTY at the W. E. Joslin home on Miner Road — a bridge luncheon with hand-made organza aprons for a prizes for each table. The following members of the St. Stephen's Altar Society were the committee: Mesdames Ida Zamlach, H. W. Pillsbury, James Sullivan, Seaver Ballard, William Maddock, Charles Hill, D. B. Woodcock, William Gillman, Paul Slattery, W. R. Arends, Paul Booth, James Buxton, H. S. Doane, Clinton Easterbrook, George Goerl and T. E. Haley. Mrs. Robert Moorehead and Mrs. James Hendrickson assisted serving.

Invitations are out for the Orinda Children's Art Exhibit to be held at Orinda School Thursday from 4 to 7 p.m. (so fathers can get in on it, too).

Mrs. John Watson is in charge of mounting the paintings, assisted by Mrs. David Wallace. Mrs. E. J. Unruh is in charge of arrangements, and Mrs. Charles Glissos is in charge of refreshments.

Mrs. George Clifford is instructor, and Mrs. Carl Muerk is in charge of crafts.

The Perc Browns are home from Las Vegas, where they took sun baths and "did" the night spots in that most amazing of towns.

That is all.

On Saturday evening, the Clements' and their guest had dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verner Muth of Sun Valley.

HIGHLIGHT OF the weekend was their trip to San Francisco Sunday evening, where they watched the Chinese New Year's festivities in Chinatown. Other friends of the Clements' joined them for dinner at the Cathay House, where they watched the parade from a table by the window overlooking Grant Avenue.

Mrs. Clements said they particularly enjoyed seeing the lions doing their spirited dance in the parade. The dance is so strenuous that from time to time the dancers trade places with other young men who have been following on the sidelines. The eyes in the lion's heads which the men wear are lit, and it was even necessary to replace a battery during the parade!

THE MANY LITTLE Chinese children dressed in colorful costumes and all carrying lighted lanterns made a pretty picture. Mothers kept an eye on the tots and had the task of relighting the lanterns when the candles went out.

According to Mrs. Clement, the parade even included a bagpipe band!

Soup-to-Nut Machines, Including Tommy Gun Models, at Glorietta

Machines from soup-maker to nut-crackers are included in the exhibit in the fifth grade room at Glorietta School this week.

As part of a study of the machine age, children in Mrs. Diana B. Boettcher's room were asked to bring in models of machines. The models, including typewriters, telephones, Tommy gun models and jet-propelled automobiles are included in the display.

A TELEGRAPHER'S KEY is one of the student-made displays arousing the most interest, according to Mrs. Boettcher. Blocks of wood and tin can were used by fifth-grader Harvey Pinkney to make this key. The apparatus was wired to a transformer and plugged into an outlet in the room, so the class could hear messages sent in Morse Code.

One project shows the operation of a lumber-mill. A small motor pulls the logs up the mill platform. "This shows the use of an inclined plane and electrical energy," the display label states. Working on this committee project were Alan Dahlstrand, Mario Guarnieri and Milton Howe.

Models and detailed drawings of Tommy guns are displayed by Richard Moore.

AN INVENTIVE FATHER contributed mounted photographs of several fruit and vegetable machines which he had designed. Included in this project by Michele Harner are a fruit and vegetable peeler and cutter, a peach turnover, Hy-speed fruit-cocktail filler and a grape stemmer.

Most of the girls chose simpler machines, but Patricia Rainey made her own model airplane to go with an essay on "Single Engine Aircraft." Another girl, more interested in the domestic side of life, commented, "I am making my report on a hammer and nail, because my mother tells me that men are never around when you want them to do something, I might just as well learn now."

Those Dimes Really Marched For 7th Graders!

Donald D. Wacks' seventh grade class at Orinda School hit upon a novel idea in the recent March of Dimes campaign. Instead of contributing to the campaign in the usual manner, the class decided to form its own March of Dimes.

A line was painted across the classroom table, and the students placed dimes on the line daily in an effort to form a line of dimes that stretched the entire length of the table.

Not only did the group achieve its goal, but a parallel line was formed that reached halfway back again across the table.

All told, the eager students contributed $14.70 to this cause, the largest amount donated by any class in Orinda.

Sheila Rasmussen was chairman of the campaign.

Sleeping Beauty Production Jobs Are Assigned

Production assignments for "Sleeping Beauty," the performance to be given by the Junior Choir of the Community Church on March 14 and 21 are distributed and work has begun.

Mrs. James Chapple is in charge of scenic design and is working closely with the costume designer, Mrs. Don Anderson, and with Mrs. Andrew Blalock who is in charge of the scenic effect. Mrs. Blalock and her assistants are cooperating with Albion Harmon, a contractor, who is doing scenic construction and managing the stage crew as he did last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thurston are again in charge of properties. Charles Flenner, an electrical engineer, is doing lighting with Lee Atkins who performed those services last year. Mrs. Don Anderson is being assisted in the costume department by Mrs. W. N. Clyvatt, who will cut patterns and give advice in the choice of materials.

All styles will again provide a sound system. Publicity is being handled by Mrs. Ralph Hall and Mrs. Lee Atkins, and tickets by Mrs. Emory Davis and Mrs. Richard Copenhagen.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Branch and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Wayne are presidents of the Clipper and Shipmates Clubs from which most of the help has come.

The group also wishes to thank Mrs. R. Robert Brattain of Lafayette for her assistance with dialogue and lyrics.

Subdued Mood for Lenten Services

Service for the first Sunday in Lent will be conducted for St. Stephen's Episcopal Church by the Reverend Charles M. Hill at 5 p.m. in the Orinda Community Church building.

In conformance with the Lenten season, music will be in a subdued mood, the choir offering, "Fill Your Hearts With Prayer" by Kathy Daniel.

Mrs. T. J. Fahay, organist and choirmaster for St. Stephen's choir, will play as solo selections, "Agnus Dei" by Handel and "Adagio in B Minor" by Corelli.

Members of St. Stephen's are looking forward with anticipation to construction of their own church, which will be built on the new road, Via Las Cruces, which connects Honeyhill and Las Vegas Roads in the Charles Hill area of Orinda. Work on Via Las Cruces is advancing rapidly toward completion at the present time, and immediately thereafter ground will be broken for the first Episcopal church in Orinda.

Local Builder Wins National Home Award

Inland Valley subdivision, developed by Platt Construction Company of Orinda, was among winners of last year's competition sponsored by the National Association of Home Builders' Land Planning Committee.

Robert R. Platt, past president of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County, received a similar award in the 1950 Neighborhood Development Contest sponsored by NAHB.

Community Church Plans Lent Series

Sunday marks the opening at Orinda Community Church of two Lenten series, the first at the earlier or 9:30 service to be given by the Rev. and Godfrey Matthews of San Francisco, and the second at 11 o'clock by the minister, Reverend Fred B. Morrow.

Sunday Reverend Morrow's sermon will be on the theme, "Philosophy of Life and Religion." An anthem by the chapel choir, directed by Margaret Popovich, is "Holy Spirit, Peace Divine," by Robson. Daniel Popovich at the memorial organ will play "Adagio" from Mozart's "String Quartet," "Chorale" by Bach, and "Choral Variations in F minor," also by Bach.

Dorothy Turk will play the 9:30 service, using a number of Thompson, "Softly and Tenderly," Iljensky's "Berceuse," and "Adagio Molto," by Guilmant.

Reverend Morrow and C. Ray Fowler will jointly conduct both services.

Sessions of the Sunday school are held both at 9:30 and 11 o'clock, with Everett D. Howe as superintendent, and a staff of fifty officers and teachers.

A Service of Baptism is scheduled to follow the later hour for Allison Gwin Everett, year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Everett.

Young people of high school age will continue their discussion of denominational groups at their Pilgrim Fellowship meeting at 6:45 Sunday evening. Ray Fowler and Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Turk are directing these activities.

Church Women to Hear About Lent

Members of the St. Stephen's Women's Auxiliary will gather at a general dinner meeting to be held Thursday at 12:30 p. m. at the home of William F. Morrish, 239 Glorietta Boulevard in Orinda.

Parents of Mrs. Arthur B. Johnson, president of the Auxiliary, Mr. and Mrs. Morrish have offered the use of their lovely home for the event, although they themselves are on an extended trip which prevents their joining their friends at St. Stephen's on this occasion.

The Reverend Charles M. Hill, vicar of St. Stephen's, will be guest speaker, his topic being "Lent, Its Privileges and Obligations."

In line with spring garden planning, Mrs. Arthur C. Hollister and Mrs. David O. Collamer will present a "Green Thumb" sale as part of the Auxiliary meeting, offering at bargain prices plants and garden aids donated by local merchants, as well as specimens from their own collections. Plants have been donated by Dave's Happy Valley Nursery, H. Van Siegen's Windy Hill Nursery and the Berkeley Horticulture Society, garden aids being given by Keyser's Orinda Hardware Store at the Crossroads and Simon's Village Hardware.

Assisting Mrs. David O. Collamer, St. Stephen's hospitality chairman, will be her committee, comprising Mrs. Seaver Bell and Mrs. Sigurd Groennings and Mrs. Robert Morre-head, Mrs. Robert Bigler and Mrs. William Arends will pour.

Lenten Lecture Series Planned

George Colliver will deliver a pre-Easter series of popular lectures at Lafayette Community Methodist Church, beginning Sunday evening at 7.

Colliver is a native Californian who completed his undergraduate work at the College of the Pacific. His post-graduate work was taken at Boston University and Harvard, followed by further advanced work at the University of California. The University of Southern California gave him the degree of Doctor of Pedagogy, in recognition of his distinguished service as teacher and lecturer at the College of the Pacific, where he served as head of the Department of Religious Education since 1920.

Since 1946 Dr. Colliver has written for the Adult Student, an educational publication of the Methodist Board of Publications, a series of discussions that has attracted wide attention and comment. At present he is president of the Pacific Coast Association for Religious Studies.

The pre-Easter series of six lectures is open to the public. Young children will be cared for. Opportunity for questions will follow the address each evening. While the lectures are a connected series, each evening will be complete in itself and all addresses will be adapted to the clearing up of questions in the minds of thoughtful people, in addition to devotional values of a Lenten observance.

Wickmans Are Back

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Wickman returned from a two weeks business trip for Mr. Wickman and a pleasure trip for his wife, on Sunday. The business was for the Shell Oil Company and took them through Phoenix, Tucson and the Pueblo Indian reservations of Arizona, and Palm Springs and Pasadena.

Speed kills. Drive carefully — the life you save may be your own.

Valley Lutheran Church Announces New Committees

Plans for the new Valley Lutheran Church are progressing at a rapid rate, according to Ed Andersen, who is directing the organization.

In order to conduct their first services by March 15, the Church Council has been divided into five committees, Andersen announced. They are as follows:

1. Church Plant. This committee is under the direction of Leonard Odenthal and Lloyd Ludwig. It will be concerned with the interior of the church itself. They will erect a temporary chapel and remodel the existing building according to building specifications and equip it to take care of a group of people.

2. Finances will be under the thumbs of Harold Roth and Robert McManahan. They will set up budget programs to cover the amounts needed for all activities.

3. A church organization committee, headed by Gene Heckathorn will arrange ushers, hymnals, a piano and all the material needed for the services.

4. Publicity and membership will be the problems of Bert Buzzini and Hal Engman. They will conduct a visitation campaign and acquaint the neighborhood with the location of the new church.

5. A Sunday school plan will be developed by Tom Kling.

The present plans are to start with an 11 o'clock service on March 15, and to follow the next Sunday with a 9:30 Sunday school and 11 a.m. service.

The council will meet tonight at Gene Heckathorn's home in Hidden Valley at 8 p.m.

Sunday Service Subject: Saints

Are the saints all dead? Or petrified in glass and marble? Where are they and how are they identified in a world like this? And what are they good for, if anything? The saints will have their innings at Lafayette Community Methodist Church on Moraga Road Sunday morning at 8:30 and again at 11. At the early service, the Junior Choir, led by John Hardy, will sing, with Processional, Anthem and Recessional. First session of the Church School is at 9:30. Second session at 11 a.m., thus enabling parents to bring their children to the school and attend Morning Worship with sermon at the same hour.

At 11 o'clock, the Adult Choir, led by Oscar Busch, will present the musical numbers. Mrs. George Shoptaugh will be the organist.

Party Rewards Sunday Schoolers

The first grade boys, section 1, of the Orinda Community Church Sunday school had a party at the home of their teacher, Mrs. A. S. Hartanov, on February 12. The party was a reward for their good attendance record and fine work. All of the boys came in their cowboy outfits. After refreshments and a story there were games and then "cow-boy" play.

Jimmie Jacobsen has a perfect attendance record. Others with nearly perfect records are Jay Harmon, Roger Baldwin, Jay Ainsworth, Bruce Ellinger, Josh Donham, Scott Halsted and Tommy Cline.

Also at the party were Scott Anderson, Dick Brown, George Cornwell, Kenny Hamburg, Roy Hoyer, Steve Gulick, Billy Hewitt and Tommy Archer.

DR. GEORGE HEDLEY, Mills College chaplain and professor of sociology and economics, will speak at next Thursday night's meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, at Lafayette Community Methodist Church.

Tips to the Hard-eyed Carpet Buyer

by Bill Simpson

For the last two years, the carpet business has been a fouled-up mess. After the Korean deal started, wool became scarce and prices went up through the roof.

Then a lot of the boys in the business became over-eager and were caught with too much stuff on their hands. As a result, prices came down. A lot of genuine bargains were offered and a lot of ridiculous discounts were advertised.

For the past year carpet manufacturers have been making honest attempts to bring new and lower priced merchandise to the market.

New cottons, new synthetics of unpleen varieties, and new blends, have made it confusing for you buyers. And it's required plenty of study on our part to keep a jump ahead of things.

When all the smoke is cleared away, what most of you gals are looking for probably boils down to the following:

1. Beauty, both of style and color.
2. Ability of the carpet to keep its beauty and its color through years of hard wear.

This involves durability, cleanability, resistance to soil, quality of dyes and often crush-resistance.

No matter where you buy your carpet, be darn sure you get these qualities . . . and get them at the right price.

Obviously this means you should buy your carpet from a firm that 1) knows its business and has kept up with the new changes; 2) will give you the straight goods on what they know; and 3) will give you the lowest possible prices on the COMPLETED job . . . and not a lot of phoney "discount offers."

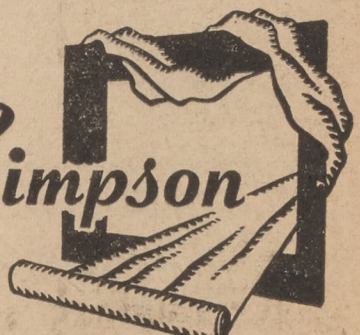

If you are in the market, or just plain want some information, come on in and chat.

Cordially,
Bill

Canyon Callings . . .

Mrs. M. F. Coleman is a visitor in the home of the George Chessums. Mrs. Coleman, who is Mrs. Chessum's aunt, is from Portland, Ore.

The Foster and the Compher families spent last weekend in the snow at Connell's, above Calaveras Big Trees. This was also in the nature of a scouting trip and Paul Foster, who is scoutmaster of Troop 212, reports Connell's as a lovely site for the weekend scout snow party planned for March 13 and 14. A plot is afoot for the Camp Fire Girls to rent a cabin at the same resort over the same weekend; both Anne Compher and Lonna Foster being Camp Fire Girls may have something to do with it.

Speaking over a "mike" is no novelty to upper-grade Canyon School youngsters. Last Monday pupils, in regular radio-play fashion, read their reading assignments from a microphone in the school kitchen and a loudspeaker broadcast their voices in the school room.

Nature Note: Groundhog predictions to the contrary, it looks like spring has come to stay in Canyon. Fruit blossoms, which by actual calendar recordings were in full bloom during the first week of March last year, are at their best now—a full three weeks early. Some birds (chickadees, linnets, flycatchers, etc.) usually not seen until March and April already have put in their appearance, although no nest building has been observed.

Total collected on the Camp Fire Girls-Mothers March of Dimes in Canyon is $45.00. As most of the 60-odd homes contacted had already given at their work in Alameda County or sent in to headquarters by mail, the committee thanks the residents for their additional contributions.

Mr. and Mrs. George Menge attended the Associated Sportsmen meeting held in Alameda last week. Senator L. Sutton was present, explaining the possibilities of the bill which he will introduce to the California legislature calling for recreation use of California's municipal reservoirs. The Menge, ardent sports fans, said they were much heartened by the apparent interest in the bill and by the many letters received from states where watershed land is now being successfully used for recreational purposes.

ational use of California's municipal reservoirs. The Menge, ardent sports fans, said they were much heartened by the apparent interest in the bill and by the many letters received from states where watershed land is now being successfully used for recreational purposes.

The Canyon Community Club which met on Wednesday last week at Canyon School voted to hold a special garbage meeting February 19 to solve current garbage problems. The members voted to sponsor a party to be held in the near future, for the seventh and eighth graders. Additional "talent" was signed up for Canyon Night, March 26, at Camp Stoneman Hospital when Canyon will entertain soldier patients.

Ruth Seeds, besides being a Cub den mother has taken on a man-sized project. She is making a braided woolen rug, finished size to be nine feet by 12 feet. Needless to say a welcome visitor to the Seeds' home over last weekend was Ruth's mother, Mrs. Sam Freeman of Oakland.

A tremendous boon to woman-kind is now on the market: chlorophyll-treated nylons, no less. They're not green. The wonderers wonder why they'll get around to making chlorophyll-treated shoes for the gals who don't wear stockings.

Kid Quip: Father complimented mother on an exceptionally fine meal and he added to the children "Wasn't that pie mama made a dream?" "Yes," agreed 10-year-old Junior, "but sometimes we get nightmares."

Did you get your tickets for the Canyon-Moraga Cub Pack 57 benefit show to be held Friday, February 20, at 8 p.m. at Moraga School auditorium? Poogi-Poogi, the magician will be the main attraction. As the three imitators scheduled will be unable to appear, three local characters will put on an act imitating the imitators.

Mothers' Club Barn Dance Big Success As Crowd Turns Out

More than 200 parents of Orinda school children tripped the terpsichore at the Orinda Mothers Club barn dance last Saturday night at the Orinda School auditorium.

Amusing wall decorations featuring "L'il Abner" characters, executed by Dorothy Anderson, the music of Doug Pimentel's Orchestra, the speedy square-dancing calls of Harry S. Noller, appetizing refreshments and the colorful cotton frocks of the Ladies all combined to make the Mothers Club annual mother-father social function a gala affair.

PROMINENT among the dancers was Beverly Veitch, pretty in a black and white deer-printed skirt, and her husband, Peter A. Veitch, new president of the Orinda Association. . . Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sheaff, the superintendent of Orinda schools, handsome in a plaid shirt and And plaid bow tie, among other items.

Don Cagers Meet Las Lomas Today, Antioch Tuesday

The Acalanes Dons take a bye in league play but today take up the slack with the Varsity Reserves and Bee teams going to Las Lomas for a pair of games in a return match.

A meeting earlier in the season found the Dons winning a pair from the Las Lomas clubs, with too much experience making the difference.

THE DON VARSITY is all hopped up over its initial league win over John Swett Tuesday and with the enthusiasm having spread to the reserves, the Las Lomas Knights may be in for a very busy afternoon.

The Bee game will lead off at 3:30, and will be followed by the Reserves encounter.

THE ACALANES BEES look smoother each time out and figure to be too much for the Knights, particularly in view of the fact that the Dons rate at the top of the league and figure to end that way.

They have but one league game to go, and that against winless Antioch.

The basketball season winds up for the Dons next Friday night, when they tackle Antioch on the Paper City hardwood.

Start of the Bee game is set for 7 o'clock. The Varsity game will follow that of the Bees.

THIS IS THE ONE the Don Babes need in order to be assured of a top spot in final league tabulations. A win would give them, at the worst, a tie for the number 1 spot, and might give them the "kings' roost" all alone, depending on the outcome of other games in which Pittsburg and Albany are involved.

Only a startling reversal of form could beat the Don Bees, and that's not likely to happen, as the quintet appears to have just hit its stride and has mellowed with each game to the point where it plays steady, consistent ball and scores as often as needed to win.

IN THE VARSITY tilt, it looks to be Antioch, as far as statistics go, but the Dons have a far better club than the cold record shows and are capable of upsetting the highly rated Antioch five.

Antioch plays a slow game and is usually involved in low scoring games, since it concentrates on defensive play.

THE DONS HAVE scoring potential, as shown when they posted 67 and 64 points in their last two outings, with Bob Gray, Buzz Ferrarese, Mike White, Bob Garrett and Bart Ferro all possessing ability to hit the hoop.

The Dons have been revived with their win over Swett and may prove much tougher than anyone anticipated in their meeting with the high-riding Antioch Panthers.

DEFEAT HAD BEEN mighty bitter all season long, and victory tasted mightily sweet.

The Dons liked it! They want more!

Sideline Slants Innocent Penalized Most Heavily for Brawls Which Are Started by Rowdies

By ERWIN MATTON

A RECENT LEAGUE ACTION cancelled athletic relations between Alhambra High and Mt. Diablo High for the remainder of the year.

The action was the outgrowth of a downtown riot following a basketball game. Such action is drastic but probably necessary to impress on certain individuals that such behavior cannot and will not be tolerated.

The unfortunate part is that the innocent are penalized most heavily. The players who had no part in the disturbance are not allowed to play due to rowdies who have a false sense of importance satisfied by engaging in a brawl.

I sometimes wonder why more drastic penalties are not imposed on those directly responsible for disturbing the peace. It might be a good idea to toss a few of them in jail for a while or put a good stiff fine on the violators.

Most of the trouble starts with those not directly connected with the team on school, often on the part of over-zealous "hangers-on" who use any excuse to start trouble.

If a $100 fine or a 30-day jail sentence were levied, it would change the complexion of things mightily fast.

Diablo Gun Club Exhibit Tonight

Also said that Charles Garrison of Concord will show 50 muzzle loading long guns and 50 muzzle loading pistols. Concord's National Guard unit also is expected to exhibit.

Don Varsity, Bee Teams Both Score Wins Over Swett!

The Acalanes basketball quintets came through with two smashing victories Tuesday afternoon.

The Varsity broke out in a rash of baskets to smack a hapless John Swett five of Crockett 64-52, and the Don Bees gave their fans something to yell about as they staged a wild finish to win going away, 33-27.

The games were played on the Acalanes court.

THIRTEEN PROVED to be a lucky number for the Dons, as this marks the 13th consecutive year that Crockett has failed to crash the win column in a Varsity game played on the Acalanes hardwood.

It looked, on the basis of record, as if this might be the year for John Swett to break the jinx, as the Dons had bitten the dust in 10 consecutive league games.

But as things turned out, the Acalanes five rose to the occasion and went on a merry scoring spree, to top the win.

THE BEE WIN completed a perfect afternoon for the Don fans and kept the Babes at the top of the league standings. With but one game to play — against Antioch, which has yet to win — the Don Bees look to be in a good spot to at least tie for championship honors.

The Varsity game gave early indications of what was to come when the Dons wasted little time in racking up 21 points in the opening quarter with a sizzling attack that saw John Swett wilt as they managed eight points. Buzz Ferrarese was the big gun for the Dons as he banged in four field goals in the opening quarter.

Swett led the gap slightly in the second period, when they hit 14 points to the Dons' 12.

THE ACALANES TEAM realized victory was within its grasp when it held a 33-22 halftime lead, and the lads came back with fire in their eye to score 31 points in the second half, which gave them enough of a lead so that Coach Lee Art was able to insert subs to finish out the game.

Bob Gray added to his scoring total for the season when he posted 16 points, as did Buzz Ferrarese. Captain Bob Garrett hit some beautiful shots and turned in one of his better games, to register 10 points for the winning cause.

High for John Swett was Ray Valley, who showed 17 for the afternoon's play.

IN THE BEE GAME, the Don Babes had their hands full when they met up with a classy performer in the John Swett five, and it was nip and tuck all the way.

The Don Bees started things off right with Red Jones hitting on three field goals to put the Dons on front 9-7 in the opening quarter.

In the second quarter, it was a sparring match all the way, with both sides playing a slow, deliberate type of ball which featured ball-handling and ball control, in contrast to the race horse type of game.

Each club registered but five points, with the Dons counting on three free throws and a field goal, while Swett tallied on two field goals and a free toss.

IN THE SECOND half, the pace quickened and the Acalanes Bees maintained a lead until the Sugar City five hit on two quick field goals and a free throw to take a 25-24 lead with but three minutes to go in the final quarter.

At this point, the Acalanes five took a hitch in their belts and went to work, coming back in a whirlwind finish to score nine points, while Swett mustered but two before the referee blew the whistle denoting the end of the game.

ROD KISTINGER may have taken a double hitch, because he rattled off three field goals in rapid succession, which settled the issue as far as the final winner was concerned.

Kistinger was high with 14 points, while teammate Red Jones had 10. The team as a whole was brilliant in its methodical play, with Jones and Kistinger providing the highlight with their sterling ball-handling and all-around floor play.

Ray Benedek was John Swett's leading light, with 10 points.

The Varsity win didn't move them out of the cellar but it did give the cellar another occupant, John Swett moved in as a result of the loss to the Dons.

Reservations Due Today for Real Estate Luncheon

Today is the last day reservations can be made for the Women's Division of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board luncheon Wednesday.

Mrs. Gerald Whitaker, vice-president and legislative chairman of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, will be the guest speaker at the noon meeting at El Nido.

A former member of the Berkeley City Council, Mrs. Whitaker was one of 15 outstanding women invited by the Navy on a two-week tour of the Hawaiian Islands last fall.

An account of the private lives of the 15 women aboard a Navy ship will provoke laughs—but Mrs. Whitaker will also tell what she believes American women can do in the present world situation.

Reservations may be made by contacting Marian Pittman, Orinda 2319; Marie Carter, Yellowstone 4-4407; Marie Snedeker, Lafayette 4730; or Marie Spindler, Yellowstone 4-7611.
